[ENG] The visual structure and a kind of “rule set” were derived from drawings by Antonio Grass, in which he proposed an alphabet with a limited number of characters. From there, the letter set was completed, adding the missing elements to become a full typeface, including numbers, punctuation marks, currency symbols, and more. The idea for tight leading and letter spacing alludes to the structure of corn kernels. The ultra–thin diacritics reference the fine hairs of the corn cob, visually linking the typeface’s form to its name.

[ESP] La estructura visual y una suerte de “reglas” se tomaron de los dibujos de Antonio Grass, en los que planteó un alfabeto con pocos caracteres. A partir de allí, el set de letras fue completado, añadiendo los elementos faltantes para convertirse en una tipografía, números, signos de puntuación y monetarios, entre otros. La idea del espacio de interlínea y el interletrado se diseñó para que fuera muy apretado, haciendo alusión a la estructura de los granos del maíz.Los diacríticos ultra delgados hacen referencia a los finos pelos de la mazorca, conectando visualmente la forma de la fuente con su nombre.
